

Gabriela Heinrich

Member of the German Bundestag

Born on April 18, 1963. Graduate Media Consultant, Technische Universität (TU) Berlin. Married, one child. Until 2013 editor in a large company in Nuremberg.

Since 1991: Member of the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD).

2002-2013: Member of the City Council, Nuremberg. Spokeswoman for integration.

Since 2013: Member of the German Bundestag.

2016-2017: Deputy Spokeswoman of the SPD parliamentary group on the Committee on Economic Cooperation and Development.

2014-2019: Deputy Spokeswoman of the SPD parliamentary group on the Committee on Human Rights and Humanitarian Aid.

2018-2019: Member of the Committee on Internal Affairs and Community.

Since 2019: Deputy Chairwoman of the Social Democratic Parliamentary Group, responsible for Foreign Affairs, Defence, Human Rights, Economic Cooperation and Development.

2014-2021: Chairwoman of the Maghreb Parliamentary Friendship Group.

Since 2022: Chairwoman of the German-Israeli Parliamentary Friendship Group.

2015-2019: Member of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe. Since 2019: Substitute member of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe. 2017-2019: General Rapporteur on combating racism and intolerance: Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination.

Spokeswoman of the Parliamentary Advisory Council on Population and Development (Deutsche Stiftung Weltbevölkerung).