

Gabriela Heinrich

Member of the German Bundestag

Born 1963 in Berlin

Studied Slavic Studies, General and Comparative Literature and Media Consulting at the Freie Universität (FU) and Technische Universität (TU) Berlin, graduated as a media consultant

Until 2013: Editor at a large software company in Nuremberg

Joined the SPD in 1991

2002 - 2013 City Councilor in Nuremberg, Spokeswoman for Integration

Since 2013: Member of the German Bundestag

2014-2017: Deputy Spokeswoman of the SPD Parliamentary Group on Economic Cooperation and Development

2014-2019: Deputy Spokeswoman of the SPD Parliamentary Group on Human Rights and Humanitarian Aid

2018-2019: Member of the Committee on Internal Affairs and Community

Since 2019: Deputy Chairwoman of the SPD Parliamentary Group in the German Bundestag; responsible for foreign affairs, security and defense, economic cooperation and development, and human rights and humanitarian aid

Since 2014: Chairwoman of the Parliamentary Friendship Group for Relations with the Maghreb States

2015-2019: Member of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe

Since 2019: Deputy member of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe

2017-2019: General Rapporteur on combating racism and intolerance (Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination)

Honorary Chairwoman of the organization pro familia Nuremberg