

Gabriela Heinrich

Member of the German Bundestag

Born on April 18, 1963. Graduate Media Consultant, Technische Universität (TU) Berlin. Married, one child. Until 2013 editor in a large company in Nuremberg.

Since 1991: member of the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD).

2002 – 2013: member of the City Council, Nuremberg. Spokeswoman for integration.

Since 2013: member of the German Bundestag.

Since 2014: deputy spokeswoman of the SPD parliamentary group on the Committee on Human Rights and Humanitarian Aid.

Chairwoman of the of the Maghreb Parliamentary Friendship Group.

Since 2018: member of the Committee on Internal Affairs and Community. Substitute member of the Committee on Economic Cooperation and Development. Substitute member of the Committee of Inquiry on the terror attack in Breitscheidplatz.

Since 2015 member of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe. Member of the Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination. Since 2017 General Rapporteur on combating racism and intolerance: Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination.

Chairwoman of pro familia Nürnberg e.V.